Thank you to everyone for attending our Spring Band Concert. A special thanks to the parents/guardians of our senior class, it has been a true blessing and honor to work with this wonderful group of seniors. Thank you to Beth Hauer, George Weber, Karrie Boser, Dan Stifter, Tom Otte, Roxanne Welle and the video crew, custodial staff and all others involved in making this concert a success. Thank you to all parents for encouraging your children to be involved in band and stay involved. It is such a blessing to work with them each day. The Summer band lesson schedule was posted right outside the PAC. We will see you at graduation! Have a great summer!

Seniors

Abby Athman, Flute/Piano/Aux. Percussion, is the daughter of Bill and Lynn Athman. Abby plans on attending the University of Northwestern in St. Paul. Abby's favorite band memory was when Steven bent the cymbals backwards at the state football game. Abby's advice, "Continue to improve at something you love to do, because you will find great joy in doing so."

Taryn Becker, Bari Sax, is the daughter of Lonna and Kurt Becker. Taryn plans to attend the College of St. Scholastica. Taryn's favorite band memory was the small group contests with the Sax ensembles. Taryn's advice, "Just have fun and get involved. You'll regret it more if you don't do anything than if you make a fool of yourself having fun."

MaKayla Brambrink, French Horn, is the daughter of Cheryl and Ken Brambrink. MaKayla plans to take classes online to earn her degree. MaKayla's favorite band memory was getting superior ratings; contests each year and the 4th hour band group. MaKayla's advice, "Practice makes perfect and don't give up."

Kacy Broschofsky, Flute, is the daughter of Joanne and Keith Broschofsky. Kacy plans to attend the University of Minnesota-Duluth and go into the field of Speech Pathology. Kacy's favorite band memories include all the crazy things she and her fellow flautist, Abby Athman, have done. Singing, harmonizing, dancing and never holding back laughter. Also, when Steven pretended to fall down and was slow motion kicking with his legs and hit the bells, knocking them over. Kacy's advice, "Just do something! Have a purpose to your actions and you won't regret them. Most of all, have fun and enjoy life. It's a precious gift from God!"

Tanner Cody, Trombone, is the son of Mona Cody. Tanner plans to attend St. Cloud State University. Tanner's favorite band memory was doing the "clappy thing." Tanner's advice, "Don't be afraid to try new things because you might find something that you enjoy more than anything else."

Leah Fuhrman, Percussion, is the daughter of Jeff and DeAnna Fuhrman. Leah plans to attend NDSU for Human Development and Family Sciences. Leah's favorite band memory was when Aaron Weber sneezed and got snot all over the bells. Leah's advice, "Make the best of your time here because it's over in the blink of an eye."

Steven Fyten, Percussion, is the son of Mark and Stephanie Fyten. Steven plans to attend Mankato to browse "dank memes." Steven's favorite band memory was doing the cymbals at the pep band with the hat and the spoon. Steven's advice, "Stay interesting."

Lillian Guck, Bass Clarinet/Tenor Sax, is the daughter of Greg and Heidi Guck. Lillian plans on attending NDSU for microbiology. Lillian's favorite band memory was buying a $14 aux cord at a gas station and jamming out all the way home from a football game. Lillian's advice, "Whatever you do, do it with passion and have fun!"

Adam Kroll, French Horn/Trumpet, is the son of Duane and Linda Kroll.

Adam plans to attend NDSU to pursue a degree in Ag Economics. Adam's favorite band memory was jazz fest as he got a chance to learn more about classmates he didn't know well. He also loved large group contest because it gave the band a chance to achieve a level of excellence that wouldn't be possible without teamwork and an excellent director. Adam's advice, "Set goals, and work hard to make them reality. If one approach doesn't work, don't change the goal, change the approach."

Frederick Linehan, Trumpet, is the son of Frederick and Jennifer Linehan.

Fred is currently undecided with his future plans. Fred's favorite band memory was performing at his last Large Group Contest. Fred's advice, "Have fun with it!"

Grace Osborne, Clarinet, is the daughter of Bethany Osborne. Grace plans to attend Crown College to pursue English Education. Grace's favorite band memory was Contest 2016 when the band received a Superior Rating and our Best-In-Site Award. Grace's advice, "Always, always, always pay attention - that cannot be stressed enough. Leave the distractions outside of class and keep your ears open. Class time is your practice time and if you distract yourself, you distract others and everyone misses out on valuable information. Listen as intently as you would to your grandparent. Don't disrespect it!"

Lukas Otte, Trumpet, is the son of Tom and Kathleen Otte. Lukas plans to attend Saint John's University. Lukas' favorite band memory was working hard to earn a Superior Rating at Contest in 2015 even though they were told they wouldn't. Lukas' advice, "Don't give up on yourselves."

Jesse Pettey, Tuba/Trombone/Guitar, is the son of Brian and Amy Pettey.

Jesse plans to attend St. Cloud State for a degree in Music Education, and in his spare time eat a lot of food and build robots. Jesse's favorite band memory was playing "What's Tanner doing?" They would randomly look over at Tanner and wonder what he was doing because he was always doing something weird. Jesse's advice, "Respect the teacher and focus on the key signature."

Nathan Poster, Trumpet, is the son of Mike and Lisa Poster. Nathan plans to attend Minnesota State Mankato. Nathan's favorite band memory was either contests or when he was in 6th grade and a high schooler picked him up by the throat while they were walking over because he was mouthing off. Nathan's advice, "Enjoy every last second of it."

Claire Reardon, Percussion, is the daughter of Michelle Reardon. Claire plans to attend St. Cloud Tech to become a Cardiovascular Technologist. Claire's favorite band memory was when Aaron Weber sneezed and snot was all over the mallets. Claire's advice, "Be you. Don't let others bring you down."

Andrea Schaefer, Clarinet/Piano/Tenor Sax, is the daughter of Wally and Mary Jo Schaefer. Andrea's favorite band memory was when Steven turned the cymbals inside out at the section football game. Andrea's advice, "Don't worry as much. It is all going to turn out just fine even if it doesn't seem like it at the moment."

Cassandra Smieja, Alto Sax, is the daughter of Annette and Mark Smieja.

Cassie plans to attend CLC in Brainerd to play Volleyball and then become an Interior Designer. Cassie's favorite band memory was messing around with Candace Stangl and Brent Dorn everyday. Cassie's advice, "Enjoy it while you can! It goes by fast!"

Emily Solinger, Baritone, is the daughter of David and Donna Solinger.

Emily plans to attend college to animate and make video games. She wants to tell stories that people can experience and enjoy. Emily's favorite band memory was contest. She always enjoyed traveling with the group to perform all the work they put into the great and challenging pieces of music. She also loved jamming at pep band with everyone.

Candace Stangl, Alto Sax, is the daughter of Brian and Dana Stangl. Candace plans to attend St. Cloud State University to pursue a career as a Speech-Language Pathologist. Candace's favorite band memory was definitely all the laughs the sax squad had throughout the years. The annual Snickers bars were a close second though. Candace's advice, "Never depend on the person sitting next to you. You will not be able to improve as a musician if you do not tackle difficult music on your own and take your own lead."

Levi Taylor, Electric Bass, is the son of Andy and Mary Taylor. Levi plans to attend CLC in Staples for Robotic Engineering. Levi's favorite band memory was making blanket forts on the bus on the way to Florida. Levi's advice, "Find something you are good at and use it to make money!"

Sarah Thommes, Clarinet/Alto Sax, is the daughter of Brian and Lois

Thommes. Sarah plans to attend the College of St. Benedict for Financial Accounting. Sarah's favorite band memory was hanging out in the band room for half the day and getting life advice. Sarah's advice, "Go to the band room more often!"

A Message From Mr. Pohland about the Class of 2017

It is very difficult to put into words what this class has accomplished and done in the two short years I have been their director. From playing solos at concerts to auditioning for college ensembles to playing at small group contest, these seniors have done more than I could have possibly asked for from a group of students. They are extremely talented musicians, athletes, artists, students and more. They bring so much to our classroom and I will miss them greatly. Some of my favorite memories with them include:

- Jesse giving Levi a high-five every time Levi raises his hand.
- Tanner and his "clappy thing"
- Adam being willing to do anything I ask, even learn a new instrument for his senior year
- Fred always asking whether it was band or choir so finally I just put up signs!
- MaKayla for staying committed and being such an awesome person and staying in band even though it didn't fit in her schedule
- Steven and his cymbals—or just Steven in general
- Claire and Leah and their smiles and love for hearing everything we accomplish and being the great people they are!
- Nathan and Lukas and their bickering back and forth with each other and/or trying to see who can play louder at pep band
- Lilly and Taryn and their laughter and commitment
- Sarah and Andrea always trying to be sneaky and take pictures to turn into memes during rehearsal but I catch them almost every time
- Emily and Grace always holding the doors open for their peers to enter the band room so we don't have a log jam
- Kacy and Abby always being clever or funny and trying to play each other's instruments or cringing when they hear the wrong note
- Candace and Cassie and whatever something they do each day that I can't help but laugh at
- Singing Bohemian Rhapsody and more with Candace, Lilly, Taryn, Sarah, Andrea and Cassie on the way home from State Football

Thank you Seniors for all that you have done! You will be greatly missed!
